PART 1 - ATTORNEY/APPLICANT COPY

NOV 2

1. Applicant's undersigned attorney personally reviewed the application to insure all pages were present. Applicant's undersigned attorney hereby affirms that the declaration was indeed included in the Response as filed.
2. The legal assistant for Applicant's undersigned attorney, Deborah R. Powell, prepared the Response transmittal letter wherein it states "(4) Originally executed Declaration (3 pages)." See Exhibit A.
3. The legal assistant for Applicant's undersign attorney, Deborah R. Powell, reviewed the Response to insure that all documents listed on the transmittal letter were present. She signed the Certificate of Mailing, counted each page of the transmittal letter and enclosures, and enclosed the Response in an envelope and sealed the envelope for mailing. See Exhibit A.
4. Applicant also included a postcard which also indicates that the Response included an "Originally executed Declaration (3 pages)." See Exhibit B. The Patent Office initially reviewed the response, transmittal letter, and postcard. The postcard has a date stamp put on it by the Patent Office mailroom. If the Originally executed Declaration had indeed been missing from the originally filed response, it seems likely that the Patent Office would have discovered as such when it reviewed the transmittal letter and the postcard.

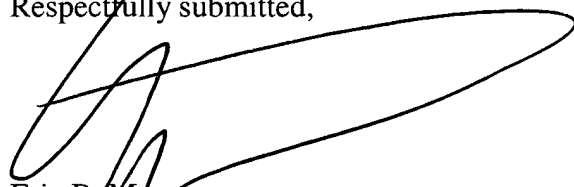

Based on the above, it is clear that Applicant did NOT fail to include the Originally executed Declaration with the above-referenced matter. If such document is now missing, Applicant respectfully submits it is due to an error within the Patent Office.

In the alternative, Applicant hereby includes a copy of the Originally executed Declaration as originally filed. See Exhibit C. As such, Applicant hereby requests acceptance of the enclosed replacement of the Originally executed Declaration.
